Nimes 2018

Steve Wijler, Kris Schaff, Natalia Avdeeva and Kim Surin took gold medals at the third stage of the 2017/18 Indoor Archery World Cup in Nimes, France, jumping up the rankings and putting themselves in qualifying positions for the Final in Las Vegas.

The men's final came down to the last set. Wijler shot 10-10-10; Ellison 9*-10-10 – and the first arrow was ruled out. "It's getting to the point, now, that in recurve men you can't miss. It's a can't miss game and it's getting exciting," said Ellison.

The Indoor Archery World Cup continues in Las Vegas in two weeks, with the first two days of the Vegas Shoot acting as stage four of the circuit, and the Indoor Archery World Cup Final taking place in the evening of the second day of competition.

Development

Gymnasiade 2018

The organising committee of the Gymnasiade will offer special assistance to 30 African Countries to attend the 2018 Championship of the International School Sport Federation (ISF) to be held in Marrakesh from 2 to 9 May, even if they are not members of the ISF.

Lodging, local transportation, catering and registration fees will be taken care of by the Moroccan Government. This invitation is for 10 people: seven athletes, two coaches and one chief of delegation. The application deadline is set for 20 April. Airfares are due to be paid by the delegations.

World Archery invite its African member associations to contact their Ministry of Education as soon as possible for this opportunity. For any assistance, please contact Khaled Sofiane Lamandé, World Archery Development Agent for Africa at: kslamande@archery.org.

African Youth Games 2018

The Executive Board of ANOCA has decided in their last meeting in Abuja, Nigeria to help the Algiers 2018 African Youth Games with a financial assistance to participating countries. Among the different helps, one is for National Olympic Committees of the participating countries, which amounts to USD 500'000. World Archery encourages its African member associations to ask their NOC to benefit from a part of this budget for the participation of their young athletes, and perhaps for their preparation as well.

Traditional Archery

World Archery is looking for members to set up a working group interested in developing traditional archery worldwide. Individuals who have energy and time for that purpose should please report to the World Archery Development and Education Director Pascal Colmaire at: pcolmaire@archery.org. Speaking English would be a bonus to collaborate with other experts in traditional archery from the various parts of the world.

Sudan

Following their General Assembly, the Sudanese Archery Federation took the unanimous decision to suspend Mr Mohamed Adam Gibreel (Mr Anwar) from his position as Secretary General and expel him for life from all functions within the federation. The Assembly, which was attended by all members, based their decision on the serious violations committed by Mr Gibreel, such as administrative offences which jeopardised the interests of archery in Sudan.

Please note that the only contacts the Sudanese Archery Federation are either the general email ssudanarchery@gmail.com or the President's address tamiry@amiryinternational.com.
